Nick Clayton seconds

Old Business:

1 Parade - We will follow up in June.

2. Notice of intent to sell - L Abrams explained the 5 acres on Boston Post Road that the town had the first right of refusal. N Clayton said that Cathy Hutchins might be interested in a CSA farm if the town bought it. Clayton will contact her. J Donovan thought the seniors in town might be interested. He will check with them.

3. October 2 - K Hodder will contact the Wayside Inn to confirm the date for the Great Pumpkin Contest at the Farmer's Market. L Abrams suggested Heritage Park as an alternate place and N Clayton suggest Sudbury Valley Trustees, at Wolbach Farm.

K Hodder & P Duggan will read a book & plant seeds with the children at the Goodnow library.
Plans were made to do pumpkin decorating, bean bag toss, & door prizes again.

New Business:

1. Homes for animals - There is a concern if someone needs a home for their animals, what could be done? L Abrams asked we should compile a list of people or farms that could help.

J Donovan makes a motion to adjourn.
N Clayton .seconds.
