

Sudbury Town Manager Maureen Valente accepted the Massachusetts Municipal Association Innovation Award award on January 21, 2012 for implementation of the Regional Housing Services Office – an Inter-Municipal Agreement between six towns, with Sudbury as host community, which provides housing services for the towns and residents. Shown from left to right are Director of Community Development Jody Kablack, Community Housing Coordinator Beth Rust, Bedford Town Manager Richard Reed, MAPC Chief Housing Planner Jennifer Raitt, Sudbury Town Manager Maureen Valente and Lexington Town Manager Carl Valente.