Fairbank Community Center (Beeler/Brown/Roberts) How to plan an effective marketing/communication plan of the needs of seniors within the overall plan occurred. Connie Steward leads the COA efforts in coordination with the Select Board members, and Bob Diefenbacher of the Friends of Sudbury Seniors.

Immediate meetings with town committees will occur on Tuesday February 25 , FINCOM; February 26 with CIAC, and February 27 with Energy and Sustainability.

A town forum will be held on Saturday March 28 at 10am-1 pm at the High School to allow for all comments on the proposed plan. IT will be on live TV and recorded for streaming as well.

The COA continues to fully support the Working Group Nov. 19, 2019 Concept proposal. Strong support of the Total Proposal is critical to the needs of the town's user groups. Bob May and Connie Steward volunteered to draft a one-page rationale which highlights the reasons for COA support of the Working Group proposal.

Friends activities in support of Community Center--Beeler. The friends continue to refine their plans for support of the community center and await direction from COA and the Select Board members.

Transportation: (Lasky/Galloway) – The Select Board continues to work towards a contract with Uber as a key vendor of many of the services.
