Project Name: Transferring the Balance of Appraisal Funds to Hosmer Painting Restoration

The Sudbury Historical Commission believes that this project is within the guidelines of the Community Preservation Act.

The Sudbury Historic Commission is requesting the authorization of the use of the remaining balance from CPA Project of 2007, Appraisal of Hosmer Paintings, to be used towards the restoration and framing of Town Owned paintings of Florence Hosmer. The SHC anticipates the amount at less than$3,000.00.

The funds will be applied toward the restoration and framing of some paintings upon completion of the Appraisal Project.

This project meets the CPA criteria under the Historical category for the following reasons:

1. Protect and preserve/restore multiple historic, cultural and archaeological resources of significance to the town.
2. The paintings are Town Owned property.
3. The Sudbury Historical Commission has had much success in the restoration of the paintings of Florence Hosmer.
4. The appraisal funds were approved at 2007 Town Meeting. The balance, after completing the appraisal, is anticipated to be less then $3,000.00.
