Level 2 chargers are useful for town employees

Folks from Guardian are looking at potential options

There were questions about the electric charger that was installed at the DPW. Information was found and provided to the Town Manager. DCFC charging could be the future for electric vehicles. Not really something that the town should get into for the future. The committee should/could develop guidance for charger installation in the future. Both for permitting in homes and in larger apartment complex areas. We need to make sure at we do not forego funding opportunities. Good to create a roadmap for the future. More to follow.
