Diana offered to be in charge of Memorial Day and Liz will get her the letter of invitation. Lyn will work with Diana to rewrite it for this year's tribute to those volunteers and employees who passed away. Jae-Ok Lee has offered to display her pottery on the fourth of July. She will ask the other members of the Art Association if someone would like to display their art work also on the fourth. Lyn will be the contact for this event.

Fire Supression System: Jim will contact Hal Cutler to get the latest information to prepare the bid

Cemeteries: The bid is ready to go out for completing the last pieces of gravestones in the Revolutionary Cemetery. Town Meeting needs to vote on using the left over funds from this account to be use on all the cemeteries as they have some stones that need repair.

Shed Cabinets: Bill will contact Bill Avery and Terry Thoman to get the wood and metal pieces needed to complete the cabinets he is building in the Hosmer House Shed.

Old Homes Survey: Doc needs someone to type up the list of all the homes that have been completed and those that are on the list to be done in the future. Jim will ask Susan if she has time to do this.

Lyn will take the oil painting of Mr. Walker down to Aragon Art to have it appraised and cleaned so it can be hung in the storeroom.
