Lisette urged the School Committee to keep students at the forefront of their focus during the executive session. She emphasized that despite their complexity, decisions regarding administration, staffing, and program structure have a direct impact on student experiences, opportunities, and futures. Furthermore, she called on the Committee to carefully consider how these conclusions influence student belonging, relationships, access to support, and overall success, thereby ensuring the district's core mission and commitment to its students remain central.

Jason McLure seconded the motion. Six(6) out of six(6) members of the School Committee were in favor via roll call vote. The meeting adjourned at 7:08PM.
