On 5-26-15 the Sudbury Police Department was notified a spent shell casing had been discovered in a class room at Lincoln Sudbury Regional High School. Lincoln and Sudbury Police responded to assist with the safety and security of students/staff. Security protocols were initiated while an investigation ensued into the origin of the casing with Lincoln Sudbury staff and police working collaboratively together. The origin of the casing is yet to be determined but no live rounds nor were any weapons discovered. Anyone with information relative to the discovery is encouraged to contact the Sudbury Police Department.

Respectfully,

Scott Nix
