I. School Committee Report

A. Bill Schedule

A bill schedule was presented.

II. Superintendent's Report

Recognitions

The Superintendent recognized elementary students for donating a record 3,526 items for the Sudbury Food Pantry, noting that Noyes students, led by teacher Florence Aldrich Bennett, collected a record 1,763 items.

The Superintendent recognized middle school students Dana Hareli, Adriana Gallo, Kate Hunt, and Jordan Futch for being selected to represent ECMS at the Boston Globe Scholastic Art Awards, noting that Dana Hareli received a Gold Key. Her artwork will be on display at the State Transportation Building. Their teacher is Scott Greenaway.

The Superintendent recognized Carole Hebb and Tammy Winslow, Noyes teachers, for their efforts on a recent Math Night presentation which was attended by over 60 parents.

A. 1st Grade Report Card

Kim Taylor, Loring Assistant Principal, presented the new First Grade Report Card. She recognized First Grade Teachers Maria Papetti, Dawn McNair, Reyne Booth, and Michelle Furbush for their efforts on this project.

C. FY '07 Budget

The Committee discussed the upcoming Budget Forum.

B. Facilities Planning

The Committee discussed enrollment projections and facilities use/capacity. Issues to be resolved include full-day kindergarten, an early childhood program, and additional space needed for specialized programs. Next steps include inviting Town Planner Jody Kablack to the next meeting, receive a "white paper" regarding early childhood education, investigate the option of hiring an educational planning consultant, and planning a Saturday "retreat."
