The selectmen make the following general report of the administration of their office for the year 1927:

We take this opportunity to make explanation regarding the method of caring for our town roads and financing this work.

As in former years we have worked in conjunction with the State and County in the construction of improved roads on the main routes. At the present time the main roads from Wayland through Sudbury to Hudson, the North road in North Sud-bury, the road from Concord line through Sudbury to Framingham and the road from Sudbury Center to the Maynard line are practically completed. The expense of building these roads has been carried equally by the State, County and Town. These roads are also maintained jointly. This takes care of the roads which have the most travel, the work being done in accordance with Chapter 90, General Laws and are known as Chap. 90 roads.

At the beginning of the year the board was able to enter an agreement with the State whereby the work on all other roads in town, except the State Highway, could be repaired and maintained jointly by the town and State Highway Department, in accordance with Chapter 81, General Laws. By this plan the State and Town carry the expense jointly but with the state contributing $5,900.00 to the town's $4,250.00.

By having our entire roads maintained by Chapter 90 and Chapter 81 the town in the past year contributed $7,250.00, while the State and County together contributed $11,900.00. The above figures do not include snow removal work or work on sidewalks and bridges, or new construction.

From the foregoing it will be seen that the town has been very generously helped by both State and County in keeping its roads in repair, and we feel that if the same system can be continued our socalled "back roads" will be regravelled, many of them oiled and put in very much better shape than at the present time. It was with this plan in mind that your board did not recommend any new construction of roads under Chapter 90 for this year.

In accordance with a vote of the town at the last annual town meeting the selectmen with the highway superintendent traded the town's steam roller for a new gasoline road roller and were able to make the deal $500.00 under the appropriation. We are glad to report that this piece of equipment has given excellent satisfaction.

Snow removal equipment was needed because the state took away one of the trucks loaned the town for this purpose. We purchased a three-ton truck and plow to take care of this situation. In regard to this piece of apparatus we wish to state that the snow plow has not given complete satisfaction and we expect to return it and get one that will do the work. The truck has given complete satisfaction. We make this explanation to clear up any false impressions which may be entertained.

Continued criticism is heard regarding our fire fighting equipment. We feel that the piece of apparatus which we have has given a good account of itself on all but one occasion during the past year. That one time was at the mill fire at South Sudbury when there was trouble with one of the intake valves. We hope the townspeople all realize and appreciate the prompt and efficient work the Wayside Inn fire apparatus has rendered the town. Without exception it has responded whenever called and has invariably been the first to be on the scene. Without doubt more than one serious conflagration has been averted solely by the presence of this piece of equipment. It is always gladly sent without expense to the town and we, as representatives of the town, take this opportunity to express to those responsible for this service, our heartiest thanks and sincerest appreciation. Better work could be accomplished in fighting fires here if call men could be depended upon to help the department when it arrives at a fire. The board feels that the establishment of a corp of call men is the first step in solving this fire fighting problem in the town.

The work of the police department has been carried on in the usual manner and we feel that law and order has been maintained as well, if not better, than the average and at a much less cost. We feel that the work of this department is increasing all the time and that the acting chief who has to spend a great part of his time in the service should have his salary increased. It would be well to explain here that quite a sizeable sum is received by the town every year in the way of fines which goes into the excess and deficiency account.

We wish to call attention to the town regarding bill boards. This by-law can be found in the annual report of the town for the year 1925 and expressly states that anyone who wishes to put up such a sign must first apply for permission before erecting it and have it conform to the town's regulation.

Two matters have developed during the year which required legal assistance. The first, a controversy over a right of way to a state pond and the second a suit for $5,000.00 by one whose truck fell off a bridge. An opinion has been returned on the former while the suit is still pending on the latter. The town has denied all responsibility for the damage to the truck which went off the bridge.

The finance committee has reported the following action to the board of selectmen. Articles in the town warrant calling for the granting of money have been considered and their decisions are recorded following such articles. They have also approved the following transfers from the reserve fund.

Gifts

A goodly collection of books, given by Miss Mabel Frost, in memory of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Frost.

Several books from the Center patrons and others interested in the building up of the juvenile department of the library.

During the past year the library has had a large number of visitors, some from distant states, trying to trace their ancestors who helped to settle Sudbury in the early days. Our sources of information are limited and I would recommend the purchase of some helpful books in this department.

The interest and cooperation on the part of the young people has made it possible for the librarian to give more and better service to the patrons of the library.

Respectfully submitted,

MABEL S. GOHLKE.

EXTENSION SERVICE

The town of Sudbury appropriated $350.00 in support of the Middlesex County Extension Service, through the Trustees for County Aid to Agriculture, for 1927. Following is a report of the work accomplished during the year.

In agriculture the major part of the work this year was carried on by means of personal farm visits wherever requested. A total of thirty-three visits were made, dealing primarily with fruit, dairy, and poultry problems. One meeting was held in Sudbury Centre for the benefit of dairymen. The county-wide poultry tour, in which several Sudbury people took part, visited the farm of P. J. Davis. A demonstration on the proper uses of concrete on the farm was attended by a large number of Sudbury people.

A complete mailing list is maintained, and the timely notices on fruit growing, poultry, and gardening which were sent out were received by a number of Sudbury people.

In Home-Making, a series of Home Improvement meetings was organized, which have been very well attended. There was also a series of Furniture Renovation meetings carried on.

In Boys and Girls 4-H club work thirteen were enrolled in Poultry and Garden clubs. Roger Walker served as local leader.

Alden Bowker was the outstanding poultry club member in the town, and Alfred Lowell won first prize in the County Garden club contest. Alfred Lowell was also awarded a two day trip to the Massachusetts Agricultural College for outstanding club work.

Many of the local boys and girls exhibited their products at the Acton fair.

A series of eight educational motion picture shows was given during the year to a total attendance of 1,259.

In addition to the local work many Sudbury people attended the county picnic, and the annual meeting of the Extension Service, held in Waltham; as well as the county-wide meetings in fruit growing, poultry, and dairying which were made available to those interested.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE H. CLARKE,
 Local Director.

In the town report, issued to the citizens of Sudbury just before March 1st, 1927, the school building committee gave an account of the progress of the new building began in the fall of 1926. The construction and furnishing of the new, and repairs and alterations on the former building, were completed so that the schools moved in at the beginning of the spring term. Changes and varied additions to the new building, and the older, modified the figures of the original contract with James Miles & Son, so that the amount in final settlement was $45,409.59. For furniture, partial expense of heating during construction, heating engineers' services, grading and removal of stone were paid $2,516.72. The bill of the architect for plans, specifications, estimates and supervision of construction, agreed in the beginning not to exceed a rate of 6%, was $2,845.51, which was less by $4.49 than the guaranteed maximum. To meet these bills was appropriated at the meetings of May 24th and July 7th, 1926, $2,350.00 for change in the former building; $500.00 appropriated at the annual March meeting of 1926, which the committee might expend for plans and estimates accepted, and $48,000.00 raised outside the town's debt limit, of which $7,850.00 was to be raised by the tax levy of 1926, and the balance, $43,000.00, by the sale of 4% bonds, payable in annual installments within fifteen years. The committee expended $67.93 in procuring sketches and descriptions of plans offered and mailing to voters, and leaving a balance of $432.07 to be applied on the fee of the architect chosen, R. Clifton Sturgis; making a total of funds available for work, $50,782.07. The separation of funds which could be used on the new building, $48,432.07, and $2,350.00 in the changes of the older, was carefully made, with the result that to date, there is an unexpended balance of $10.25 on account of the former, and the amount for the latter entirely used, as there were several things that could be more conveniently and economically done while work was going on than at a later time, and the school committee agreed to meet from their funds the additional cost of $50.00 for connection of new chemical tables with the plumbing system.

Your committee thanks the architect, the contractor and the citizens of the town for their helpful spirit and service; the pupils and teachers for their patience, and asks dismissal from service on the completion of their work.

FIRE COMMITTEE

SPECIAL REPORT

In view of the last published town report, in which it stated that for the year 1926, out of an appropriation of $1,000 for the fire and police departments, $1,473.73 was spent for fire alone, your fire committee feels disposed to make the following recommendations, in addition to those mentioned in its last report.

1. Fire Department:

(a)—The establishment of a system of call men to be apportioned among the various sections of town. For example, six each from North Sudbury, the Center and South Sudbury—or any other apportionment that the chief may desire. These call men to be paid a flat rate per year, with no extra pay for time spent at fires, but with suitable fines for those fires to which they are called, but do not attend. Such fines to return to the town treasury. Not all such men would necessarily attend all fires, but often only those in their respective districts. These men to be under the direction of the fire chief. Chief to be paid a higher rate.

The sum of $800.00 is recommended for this purpose.

(b)—The establishment of a firemen's relief association along the lines of the State organization. It would be for the relief of any member injured going to, at, or returning from a fire. It would be started by a suitable appropriation by the town and sustained by its members by dues, donations and entertainments.

The committee recommends the sum of $100.00 (or less) for the purpose.

2. Water Supply:

This item proved a stumbling block last year, and your committee is ready to prove by a scale map that there are comparatively few dwellings left in town that cannot be covered to a greater or less degree—provided that some effort is made to improve existing supplies of water. These water holes vary in capacity of course, but fortunately the more thickly populated districts are better supplied, and comparatively little work would give us adequate water for fire protection for most of the town most of the year. We believe that even partial protection is better than none at all, and recommend the appropriation of $1,000.00 to start this work. This money to be expended under the direction of the Fire Chief and Board of Selectmen.

3. Fire Alarm:

The committee finds that an adequate fire alarm system would cost the town upwards of $3,000.00 and that at present we have not sufficient apparatus to warrant this expenditure.

If some form of whistle is desired for the more thickly populated sections, an electric siren may be bought and installed for about $500.00.

We recommend using the existing telephone facilities, supplying the telephone operator with a list of the call men for the various sections to be notified in case of need.

Respectfully submitted,

STEPHEN M. W. GRAY,
Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PLAYGROUNDS

The committee consisting of the board of selectmen and the school committee, which was appointed at the special town meeting held Dec. 15, 1927, to "investigate the advisability and possibility of purchasing additional land adjoining the present Center school grounds, said committee to report at the next annual town meeting," met, organized and studied the situation.

It was quickly recognized that additional land was needed for recreational purposes. But no ideal place was available near the school grounds. It was found, however, that a small tract of land in the pasture at the rear of and adjoining the present school ground could be purchased of Joel Haynes at a reasonable price, which, by removing fence and grading a small section to enlarge the present ball diamond, would give ample room for all scholars to exercise with safety in the open air.

It was therefore voted to prepare an article or articles for the town warrant embodying the recommendations of the committee.

REPORT OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE

To the Citizens of Sudbury:

The new and completed Center school building was occupied at the beginning of the Spring term and has received hearty words of approval from teachers, scholars, parents, visitors and voters. Large and attractive rooms, well-heated and ventilated with an abundance of light and up-to-date equipment, makes it possible to do better and broader work than was possible in the old building. The large basement, although not high enough for many forms of gymnastics, has nevertheless been fitted for indoor games and many exercises for physical culture, and is certainly very helpful in building good bodies without which scholarship is greatly handicapped.

We hope that with the increased room in the school house it will be possible very soon to inaugurate a commercial department to help students, who are unable to take a regular college course.

As happens nearly every year good teachers have left us and new ones have been secured to take their places. But this has not seriously interrupted the good work being done in our schools. The new teachers have been helpful additions to our teaching forces.

The lunch room which it was impossible to introduce in the overcrowded old building, is now well established and greatly enjoyed. It is sponsored by the enthusiastic and very competent Parent-Teachers Association and conducted by an excellent dietitian and assistant and is well patronized by scholars and teachers. Better health, more energy and increased efficiency is already noticed.

The fact that the income from the George J. Raymond scholarship fund for the promotion of higher education in the Sudbury high school is now available, should be an incentive to many scholars to do as thorough work as possible throughout the entire course; for no one can expect to win the prize who is unwilling to do good foundation work. Remember the conditions: "The income is to be awarded to the boy or girl who has completed the four years course in the Sudbury high school, and has entered as a student, any classical college or technical school, such as the Worcester Polytechnical school, or the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and is studying for an A. B. or B. S. degree. The scholarship is to be awarded at the end of the first semester of the freshman year. The scholarship is to be awarded to the pupil who excels in scholarship, in character and in personality, each counting one-third in the award."

Waldo E. Stone of the last graduating class has received the prize of $150.00 this year.

Miss Lilla S. Adams, who for twenty years has rendered efficient service in the Sudbury schools, will, by the rule of the Teachers' Retirement Association, retire at the end of the present year.

We desire to record our appreciation of her untiring and painstaking efforts for the welfare of the large number of pupils who have been under her care, and we hope that her journey to the golden sunset of life will be brightened with pleasant memories of her sojourn in Sudbury. She will take with her the best wishes of a large number of the townspeople.

Manual training, sewing, music and drawing have continued with the same excellent instructor as last year and commendable results have been obtained.

The treasurer's report, the reports of the superintendent, the high school principal, the school physician and the school nurse, which follow this report, should be read carefully for they contain much valuable information and many worthwhile suggestions.

We thank all, who have helped to make the schools of the town so successful during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE H. CLARKE,
FRANK S. MORTON,
ESTHER C. ELLMS,

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the Subury School Committee:

The thirtieth annual report of the district superintendent of schools is respectfully submitted. It is my eighteenth report.

REDSTONE SCHOOL

January seventeenth, 1927, Redstone School was opened at Wayside Inn for the benefit of Sudbury children by Henry Ford, under the direction of E. C. Boyer. Mr. Ford furnishes transportation, all supplies, and employs two able women to instruct the children. The children have the benefit of a hot dish daily. Educative journeys are given the children. Everything is supplied the school in the way of equipment in the school room and on the playground and in health education and care that is needed and more. The school accommodates sixteen children enrolled in Grades I., II., III., IV., V., and VI. The work is compared with that of Sudbury schools frequently through this office. Redstone school is a very modern school in an old-time setting.

The Union School supplied the children for Redstone School. Consequently it has been possible to close one of the rooms at the Union school and to transport the children of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades to the Center without increasing the cost of transportation.

GENERAL COMMENT

In June, 1927, the State Clinic relative to children three or more years retarded in their school progress was held in Sudbury. Yearly superintendents of schools are obliged to report to the State the number of children three or more years retarded. Eleven were reported. Of this eleven, six were found to be retarded in their progress in school, but not three years retarded mentally. Five were found to be three or more years retarded in mental development. Were there ten or more children in town three or more years mentally retarded, Sudbury would be obliged to open a room for special instruction to the group.

Schools started in September with nine teachers employed instead of ten as theretofore, on account of closing a room at the Union school. It seemed in June possible to get on with this teaching force. However, the number of children attending the Center School from other parts of the town other than the Southern section increased to such an extent that it became necessary to open a room not in service at the Center and to employ a tenth teacher again.

The current school year has brought about a change in the support of the shop and sewing instruction.

For something like fifteen years the Sudbury Woman's Club has raised the money to support woodworking in connection with the schools. It is about ten years that the club has supported the sewing courses. The Sudbury Woman's Club, together with the teachers, has held an annual exhibit of school work of all sorts. Prizes have been awarded for workmanship in handicraft. Many awards of ribbons have been made for excellence in all departments of school work. The service of the Woman's Club has been most graciously given all these years.

During the fifteen years that the Sudbury Woman's Club has been so closely connected with the educational life of the town in so far as the schools are concerned there have been the most cordial relations. I am sure that the school committee and the many who have served as teachers in the schools during these years unite with me in congratulating the club on the excellent service rendered the boys and girls and join with me in thanking the members and officers for the boys and girls for the educational opportunities thus made possible to them.

Sudbury Woman's Club rightfully rejoices in having the town take over the support of this work and the school department the care of it. No doubt the club will devote its efforts to as worthy a cause in the future.

November first, with characteristic vigor, the Parent-Teacher Association began furnishing the children luncheons. The association has built a serving counter, a kitchenette, fully equipped except for electric range, the gift of the Class of 1927, some of the tables, the benches, storage closets, and have removed the platform.

Cooking and serving utensils have been furnished. A woman has been employed. Two women are now employed. Excellent food has been served at a low cost. Day after day at first women left their homes to assist Mrs. Jenkins in the service. High school girls have assisted materially at the lunch hour. The association expects to pay for the services of the lunch room supervisor and assistant and for all supplies out of receipts. The town pays for the current to run the range, furnishes a room and the heating thereof, and will pay for the installation of the range.

Words of commendation are due all who have assisted in this objective of the Parent-Teacher Association. Recently the Association has formulated plans to extend service to the Union and North schools. The entire project has been established in the school system with ease, dispatch, and comfort. The service is efficient. A most kindly spirit of co-operation exists between the students, teachers, and association. The association has ever kept in mind the fact that school work comes first.

I believe that the work of the children in the afternoon is improved. I believe that the general health of the children is improving. I am sure that our teachers are refreshed for the afternoon's toil because of a nourishing substantial luncheon.

One-tenth of the time of your full time teaching staff is devoted to instructin 12-209 of the children enrolled in the schools. This disproportionate instructing service is rendered the children of the North school.

The sum of $100 has been given the Center school for the purchase of indoor play time goods. Excellen use is being made of the playroom and donated supplies. As soon as the old shop is entirely dismantled another room for a second group will be available.

The boys of the classes in manual training have made tables for the sewing classes and lunch room. They have also installed protectors for the steam pipes in the play room. They are now dismantling the old shop, laying a floor in the new room, building a partition to the entrance thereto, building closets for class stock, and for tools. They are also setting up benches and so forth in the shop. This last work is now well along. If an exhibit is held in June we should bear in mind that the burden of the year's work for the boys has been in group construction work, very valuable educationally. The exhibition of individual work will be much less attractive, however.

The graduates of Sudbury high school are giving good account of themselves in college, normal school, business college, and in business.

After the first college semester the chairman of the school committee, the principal of the high school and the superintendent of schools, a duly appointed committee, will make the first award of the George J. Raymond scholarship. There are two candidates.

The establishment of scholarships to assist worthy sons and daughters of Sudbury in their educational work beyond that which the town can offer is highly commendable. I am sure that all appreciate Mrs. Raymond's gift to Sudbury boys and girls for all time. The committee will make its award, conscious of the donor's generosity and in memory of him to whom the fund is dedicated.

The Center playground has been greatly depleted through the additional floor space added to the old plant.

Recommendations

I recommend that the North school be closed and the children transported to the Center; that Miss Esther Adams be employed at the Center to assist in the upper grades and high school, offering courses in commercial branches. If this recommendation be not adopted I recommend that those children who reside in the North District attend the North school, thereby tending to more nearly equalize the instructing time of out teaching staff.

It will be well for us to study the organization of the Sudbury schools should the Union school be closed and teachers employed at the Center. Financially the cost should be less. Service of the schools to the children should be stronger.

We may presume I judge that eventually the Parent-Teacher Association will wish the school department to take over the lunch service. Whenever this takes place we should employ a full time woman to look after the work and to offer sewing and cookery to our girls. An assistant will have to be employed as at present.

We may well consider employing a teacher of manual training two days per week. One day is now devoted to this important branch.

Another teacher is needed at the Center, especially to assist in the upper grades and high school. Principal Flynn suggests very opportunely that such service be devoted to commercial subjects. I recommend for your consideration an additional teacher for the Center school.

I also recommend that acreage for playground be secured; that such acreage be of the right sort so that a baseball diamond of real merit may serve the school. Simply more land, furnishing no opportunity for more than a poor field for scrub baseball, will in my opinion be a waste of land and of money.

If the rules and regulations adopted by the town for the award of the Raymond Scholarship are not satisfactory to the town, or more especially to Mrs. Raymond, they should be changed. An award in June at our graduation exercises offers a more interesting time for the announcement of the award than does an announcement made after the first semester at college. The present rules assure the making of the final award to a young man or young woman who has at least been successful in a half year of college work as the award will not be made until returns of standing from the colleges at the first semester have been made the school.

Your attention is directed to the reports of the high school principal, school physician and nurse.

Respectfully submitted,
FRANK H. BENEDICT.

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Mr. Frank H. Benedict,
Superintendent of Schools.

Dear Sir—My report, covering only four months' experience in the Sudbury school system, is of necessity limited. I am pleased to state that I believe it a report of progress.

The children of Sudbury were fortunate to start the school year in a new building. One hundred eighty-three children have been comfortably housed. The school enrollment is as follows:

Grammar school: Grade I., 12; Grade II., 8; Grade III., 8;

Grade IV., 22; Grade V., 24; Grade VI., 18; Grade VII., 20; Grade VIII., 21.

High school: Freshman, 18, sophomores, 12; juniors, 13; seniors, 7.

In many of the reports of the past ten years I have noted a plea for parent cooperation. This year the Parent-Teachers' organization is affording wise and competent aid. Among the accomplishments of the organization is the school lunch service, in operation since November 1, 1927. It is no small endeavor to serve an average of eighty pupils daily, at an average cost of nine cents per meal. We know that there has been an increase of health and efficiency due to this mid-day meal.

The success of any public school system depends primarily upon the daily presence of those who are to be instructed. Illness is the only legitimate excuse for absence. Parents who allow their children to become lax in attendance should realize that they are putting their children under a tremendous handicap, as well as cutting down the efficiency of the entire school.

I believe that marks are directly affected by loss of time at school. The high school figures to date show the girls' average attendance to be 95%, with a scholastic average of 80.8%; while the attendance of the boys has been 80%, with a scholastic average of 70.1%. Regular attendance will in most cases mean better grades.

As I have studied the high school group, I have become convinced that we are not doing enough for them. We are duly proud of our graduates who are able to go on to college work. But—how many of the present freshman class will have that opportunity? Twenty percent would be a high estimate. What may we do for the eighty percent? How may we keep our freshman class of eighteen intact throughout their four years of high school? I believe that we should institute a commercial course, which in four years' time would prepare our eighty percent for beneficial citizenship. This could be done with the addition of one teacher to the present staff, and in the future we would not see a large freshman class dwindle to a bare half-dozen seniors.

Athletics play a large part in our training for useful citizenship. We are sadly in need of sufficient playground area immediately adjoining the building, so that we may meet the needs of a large group comprised of children from six to eighteen years of age.

With hearty appreciation for the constant cooperation of the superintendent, the school committee, and the parents, I present my report.

Respectfully submitted,

ALAN F. FLYNN, Principal.

ANNUAL REPORT OF SCHOOL NURSE

To the Sudbury School Committee:

A report of the school nursing for the year ending December 31, 1927, is hereby submitted.

One hundred twenty-four pupils were seen, privately treated, or advised. Sixty-two follow-up or home visits made.

A total of forty-one days have been spent in Sudbury, all three schools visited; doing the usual routine work: Weighing and measuring all pupils twice a year, assisting the school physician with physical examination of each pupil in the fall, submitting to Dr. Sparks a summary of defects found, sending proper notices of defects to parents and guardians, etc., etc.

This year an unusual amount of time has been spent in examining scalps and clearing up a good many cases of pediculosis and nits; last March we had considerable trouble and again in September and October.

In January the schools were closed, owing to three cases of scarlet fever. In February, there were several cases of mumps, and in December the South school closed a little before the Christmas vacation, there being thirteen cases of measles. These and a few cases of conjunctivitis have comprised all the contagious diseases for the year.

Health habits have been successfully taught by several teachers through "Health Trains," tooth brush drills and a great deal through poster work.

In March, Dr. Millet, from the state department of health, made a follow-up on the underweight clinic.

The public health committee, during the summer, made pre-school visits to families where we knew there were prospective scholars for Grade I., giving them a school physical record blank and recommending, that when they go to their family physician for vaccination, a physical examination of the child be given, to find defects to be corrected before the child enters school.

Respectfully submitted, with a sincere appreciation of the help and kindness received.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL PHYSICIAN

Cochituate, Mass., Dec. 12, 1927.

Mr. Frank H. Benedict,
Superintendent of Sudbury Schools.

Dear Mr. Benedict—I herewith submit to you my seventh annual report as physician of Sudbury schools.

The number of pupils examined is 200. Of this number, 82 had hypertrophied tonsils. Some of these, as usual, are not necessarily cases that need immediate attention and probably some will never produce any trouble. However, I have recommended that 36 be taken to their family physician for advice as to special attention.

The diagnosis of adenoids is very unsatisfactory. About the best that can be said is that the child has symptoms of same. I discovered 20 cases which can be classed as such. This is probably too small, rather than too large a number.

There were 60 cases of carious teeth which needed attention at once. In some cases I did not mention this condition, although present, because the age of the child and the condition and location of the teeth indicated that it would soon fall out. There were 65 cases of dirty or stained teeth.

The word "dirty" means in most instances neglect, shiftlessness, or the don't care attitude, but the term "stained" means a dark line next to the gum, which needs dental care.

There were 13 cases of cervical glands, which is an exceptionally good record. There were five cases of enlarged thyroid gland. This condition should always be referred to some physician who can keep a close watch as to the growth, or not, and also the accompanying complication which may arise.

One case of osteomyelitis, which has left some deformity, is recorded.

One case of impetigo contagiosa was discovered.

Pediculosis and nits were found in several of the younger children, but Miss Rudolf states they have all been taken care of.

So much could be said about posture and so little it seems to me can be done without some special work in that line that I only mention it as one of the many things that can be arranged for at some future date.

The children as a whole seem interested in this work, often speaking of their defects as they come to me and informing me what disposition is soon to be made of their troubles. The girls seem to take better care of themselves and to be more interested in their health than do the boys. Parents are cooperating more than when I first began this work.

Insofar as I know Sudbury is doing nothing in regard to the prevention of diphtheria. This is something that can and should be attended to.

The repair and new work done on the building at the Center is a great improvement and ought to be a help to the students and faculty and general school work.

Again I wish to thank you for your assistance, the teachers for their cooperation, the children for their excellent conduct at these examinations, and Miss Rudolf for her untiring efforts to help make this work a success.

Respectfully submitted,
ERNEST E. SPARKS.
