

1930 a former trolley bridge has been planted each year with annual and perennial flowers by the local garden clubs. We will make a short stop at Atkins Farm for a tempting bit of sampling before heading to the Salem Cross Inn for a mid-afternoon lunch. Our menu choices will be old fashioned chicken pie served on a buttermilk biscuit or fresh broiled maple salmon, vegetable, potato, rolls or muffins, pecan custard bread pudding and beverage.

Aqua Turf: Tuesday, November 16, cost $65. Join us in a Salute to the Armed Forces at one of New England's finest entertainment and luncheon sites just outside Hartford, Connecticut. Menu: family style breast of chicken in wine sauce or baked salmon, soup, salad, carrots, potatoes and apple squares.

December: TBA at a later date. (Will it be Christmas Pops again or something else? Opinions please!)

*Is there any interest in a 6 day, end of December 2010 trip to the Tournament of Roses parade in California?

TRIP GUIDELINES

1. Trips are open to all adults. Travelers requiring special assistance must bring a companion.
2. Early signup is recommended. Out-of-town residents may book two weeks after a new trip is announced.

3. Any special needs (such as seating or food) should be made known to us ahead of time. People traveling together should alert us so we can seat them together, especially if a theatre ticket is involved.
4. Day trips must be paid in full to Sudbury Senior Trips at time of booking. No reservations are accepted without payment.
5. Day trips require a minimum of 35 (Foxwoods trips require 40) participants unless we partner with another group. All payments will be returned for trips cancelled by us or the tour company.
6. Once a trip is sold out, you may place your name on our wait list. You will not be asked to pay until space becomes available. When space does become available, you must pay ASAP or the space will be offered to the next person on the list.
7. Refunds When a theatre ticket is involved in a day trip, it is non-refundable unless we can resell it. Refunds are at the discretion of our partnering trip company. Call us for information about the policy for any specific trip. A "no show" on the day of a trip is non-refundable.
8. Multi-day trips require a deposit at time of booking. Final payment dates are listed on the trip flyer. Insurance for the trip is highly recommended.
9. Trips will leave at the time posted. Please be at the Sudbury Senior Center at least fifteen minutes prior to departure time. Our companies and vendors have events timed and require us to be prompt. Trip costs cannot be refunded if you simply "miss the bus".

10. We require the following information from all our one-day and multi-day trip participants: (1) Your name, address and phone number (on your check); (2) trip name and menu choice if applicable on the memo line of your check; (3) emergency contact name, relationship, and telephone number (forms are at the desk, or on the trip flyer).

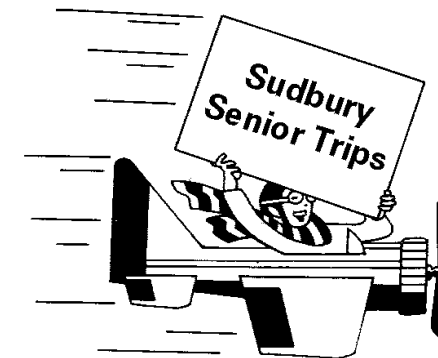

NOTES: Please observe our final dates for signups and payment. This helps to insure good seating at our trip sites. Trips may sell out before that date, and in most cases only one bus will be booked.

Trips may be added during the course of the year at the discretion of the Trip Coordinator or Senior Center.

Trips and departure times are subject to change due to unforeseen circumstances. In case of extreme weather please call the trip hotline at 978-639-3277 or the coordinator to see if the trip has been cancelled or postponed.

Parking is available only in the rear two rows of the Senior Center lot. Overflow parking is available at the far side of the pool area nearest Hudson Road. The motor coach will drop you off there at the end of our trip. Please do not park in the School Department spaces.

Handicap parking (multi-day trips): Please do not park in the designated handicap parking spots if you will be going on a multiday trip, even if you have a handicap placard. If you need assistance please let us know. Then drive to the door, and we will arrange to have someone meet you and park your car in the designated trip spaces for you.

Celtic Voices: Tuesday, March 16 cost $69.95 includes show and lunch. While these very talented young ladies are not the original Celtic Women you have seen on TV you will be enthralled by their beautiful voices and other musical talents. They have been a huge hit in their native Ireland. Your choice of corned beef and cabbage or baked haddock, vegetable, potato, bread, dessert and beverage.

Amesbury PlayHouse: Wednesday, April 21, cost $61. *Do Black, Patent Leather Shoes Really Reflect Up? If you grew up in the 50's you may remember polishing your best patent leather Sunday shoes with Vaseline. A very humorous play about going to school with the nuns, at the longest running year round dinner playhouse in Massachusetts. Menu choices are: queen cut prime rib, chicken cordon bleu, baked stuffed pork chops or baked scallops, soup or salad, vegetable, potato, rolls, dessert and beverage. *Play subject to change.

Tropical Heat: Wednesday, May 12 at Luciano's on Lake Pearl, Wrentham. Cost $69. Come and feel the beat of the island heat. A great follow up to our November Caribbean Cruise, featuring the steel band music of the islands and all the calypso tunes. It's sure to put you in the mood to want to cha cha or maybe sail off on another tropical cruise. Menu choices are stuffed breast of chicken or baked haddock, vegetable, bread dessert and beverage. Sure to put you in a "Can't wait for summer" mood.

Joseph and Penn Dutch: Tuesday, June 1-Thursday, June 3. At the spectacular Millennium Sight and Sound Theater in Pennsylvania. Cost $439 pp. dbl. Day 1: Experience a mock Amish wedding celebration and traditional feast as well as the F/X showing of the critically acclaimed Jacobs Choice, Day 2: Joseph, one of the most appealing bible stories of all time, done on a magnificent stage that practically encircles the audience with 60 beautifully costumed actors and many live animals followed by dinner at Miller's Smorgasbord. Day 3: A stop at Hershey, Pa (the sweetest place on Earth) and on to home.

Two Shows for One: Tuesday, July 6 at the Venezia Restaurant, Boston. Cost $69, featuring Pei-Wen an amazing 14 year old international violinist with an incredible repertoire of both contemporary and classical music. Also featuring Maureen McMullen whose exquisite voice and depth of emotion has caused her to be asked to perform with the Boston Pops Orchestra as well as being a highlight of the Boston Common tree lighting ceremony. These two outstanding shows also include a full luncheon with a choice of chicken parmesan with pasta or baked haddock, salad, vegetable, potato, dessert and beverage.

Foster's Downeast Lobster Bake: Tuesday, July 27, York Harbor. Maine, Cost $65.00. Enjoy a succulent sit-down lobster bake with fresh, dug Maine clams, cultivated mussels, and sweet corn on the cob, roasted red bliss potato, rolls, hot drawn butter and blueberry cake. All steamed over a roaring wood fire with entertainment by Leighton on the keyboard. A short pre-luncheon stop will be made at the Stonewall kitchen (time permitting). We may even have time for a little shopping or a stroll on York Beach.

Cabaret Lulu: Wednesday, August 18, Sturbridge Village. Cost $67 The Merry Magical Musical presented at the theater at Old Sturbridge Village. This is a new show brought here by a group of professional actors from Broadway, TV and the stages of the world in an afternoon of fine dining, great music, mystifying magic and lots of laughter. The luncheon menu is as follows: choice of herb marinated breast of chicken or grilled salmon with dill butter sauce, potato, vegetable, and peppermint ice cream pie with hot fudge sauce and beverage.

Great Trains & Grand Canyons, featuring Sedona: September 26-October 1, (One hotel and 2 trains) Cost $1,949 pp. dbl. Travel back in time six million years as we experience the dynamic colors of nature's power and beauty on our six day trip to this fascinating area of our great country. Trip includes roundtrip air, hotel, trains, sightseeing and all admissions, 8 meals (5 breakfasts and 3 dinners) local professional tour director and baggage handling. We will visit the south rim of the Grand Canyon, Oak Creek Canyon and more. What a great time of year to visit his spectacular part of our country.

The Mohawk Trail & The Bridge of Flowers: Wednesday, October 13, Cost $56 Enjoy the scenic byways of Massachusetts as we journey west along the Mohawk trail to the quaint little village of Shelburne Falls where the very well known Bridge of Flowers is located. Since
