

LGBTQ

The senior center is committed to providing respect for all LGBT Older Adults to increase opportunities for members to become engaged in activities and educational programs at our center. Call us when you need guidance, and let us know how we can help.

If you are looking for a SHINE counselor, an elder attorney who can help you get your affairs in order, if you need the name of a home services that is committed to honoring and respecting LGBT older adults; if you have any questions at all about getting the support you need to live independently and engaged in our community, call Outreach/ Information Specialist. Ana Cristina Oliveira at 978-443-3055.

For additional resources check the following website:

SAGE Advocacy & Services for LGBT Elders <http://www.Sageusa.org>

National Resources Center on LGBT aging <http://www.lgbtagingcenter.org>