

Local History and Archives Image Use Form

Hi-res images suitable for publication, exhibition, or other print projects are available upon request. Images for publication are provided as standard 300-600dpi TIFFs. Requests for commercial use, including for-profit projects and publications, film and television production, licensing, and merchandising are subject to approval.

Images requested for publication or commercial use will be provided with a letter including an object description and the proper credit line. Citations may be in any format, as long as all the object information as well as the credit line is present.
