Budget/Funding Update

I spent a significant amount of time in January coordinating with the Town on logistics related to Nichole Argo's contract for the Lived Experiences/Storytelling Project. The Town needed more information on the nature of the project and what Dr. Argo's role in order to determine the appropriate contract provisions. I am happy to report that the contract was fully executed on 1/26, so we can officially move forward with the project.

Lived Experiences/Storytelling Project Sub-Committee Update

The Lived Experience/Storytelling Project Sub-Committee has not met since 1/13, mostly because I was waiting for confirmation for final approval of the contract with Nichole Argo before moving forward. The sub-committee has a meeting scheduled for 2/12 at 3:00 pm.

Outreach Working Group January 26, 2022 Meeting Minutes

Present: Katina Fontes, Sue Abrams, Joanne Rees, Yana Bloomsein, Sue Rushfirth

Action Items

1. Working Group to become a formal committee: All agreed this should take place. In the future, the meetings will be posted and minuted. Are we required to record the session if it is on Zoom? Confirm with Henry Hayes that this is not necessary.
2. Research as part of Outreach: After discussion, we recommend that Research be under the auspices of the Lived Experiences Committee.
3. Proposed responsibilities of Outreach Committee
  - a. Revisit summaries of information from other DEI commissions
    - i. Collate and list recommendations
  - b. Develop a list of people whom we would like to present to SDEIC and create guidelines for specific areas to cover.
  - c. Circulate and submit quarterly reports to town boards, committees and departments.
    - i. There are 38 of these, so we will not have the ability to contact them all. Suggested that we summarize and highlight areas we wish addressed. Recommend a “top-down” approach with Select Board taking the lead. Emphasized the importance of personal contact.
  - d. Establish demographic breakdown of the town
  - e. Collaborate with community groups focused on similar issues. Yana has a list of organizations. She will circulate.
  - f. Establish a list of these groups and invite posts on our Facebook page.
  - g. Maintain Facebook page - Joanne

4. Other issues related to Outreach Receipt of emails and correspondence

- a. It is recommended that the SDEIC respond to all correspondence within twenty-four hours, acknowledging receipt and describing proposed action.
- b. Role of volunteers as a resource to support committee work.
  - i. If a volunteer is tasked with a particular function and works with one commission member, is that allowable as part of the work? Check with Selectperson Janie Dretler.
  - ii. Sharing work of committees and receiving feedback.
  - iii. All members of the SDEIC must have the opportunity to know what is taking place in the working groups.
  - iv. Most of the work will be done by these groups, and therefore the Committee Reports should be the central part of every SDEIC meeting.
  - v. Open Meeting Laws render it even more critical that information is shared at a monthly meeting.
  - vi. Establish membership of committees and description of work of each Committees to be voted at next SDEIC.

5. Date of the first meeting of Outreach Committee

- a. If we divide the work up among the members, we could meet every two months.
- b. If the SDEIC votes to improve the formation of the various committees, we should meet soon after. Proposed Wednesday, February 16 at 2.00 pm on Zoom Sue will confirm with Henry Hayes that committee meetings do not have to be recorded.

Depiction of Native Americans in Public Markers in Sudbury Letter from Sudbury Clergy Association

January 25, 2022

Dear Members of the Sudbury Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Commission,

As members of the Sudbury Clergy Association, we are concerned about the representation of First Peoples (Indigenous People) in public markers in Sudbury.

Three of Sudbury's public markers (see #1-3 below) suggest, without providing any context, that during the so-called King Philip's War, colonial settlers were defending their land from attacks by First Peoples. Through our 2021 eyes, the conflict between colonials and Metacomet (King Philip) and his people can be understood quite differently. Since First Peoples resided on this land for thousands of years before colonial settlers arrived, in the broader context, they can be understood to have been defending their ancestral land from invasion by colonial settlers. A fourth marker (see #4 below) states that the Town of Sudbury was "settled" in 1638, rendering invisible the presence of First Peoples on the land prior to the arrival of colonial settlers.

1. Sudbury Fight

Inscription: "One-quarter mile north took place the Sudbury Fight with King Philip's Indians on April 21, 1676. Captain Samuel Wadsworth fell with twenty-eight of his men; their monument stands in the burying ground."

2. Haynes Garrison House

Inscription: "One-Eighth of a mile north is the site of the Haynes Garrison House, the home of Deacon John Haynes. Here the settlers by their brave defense saved the town when King Philip and his Indian warriors attacked Sudbury in April, 1676."

3. The Goodnow Garrison House

Inscription: "Portion of the Goodnow Garrison House in which the settlers took refuge from King Philip's Indians during the battle of April 18-21, 1676."

4. Sudbury

Inscription: "Settled 1638 by a company of Puritans who arrived in the ship "Confidence" and were attracted by the meadows on the Musketaquid River. Named after Sudbury in Suffolk."

We write today to ask that the Sudbury Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Commission consider exploring and opening a conversation about public markers in Sudbury and their depiction of

First Peoples. Recently, the Wayland Public Library hosted a panel discussion titled The Public History of King Philip's War. A recording of the program is available here. The Library panel, which included First Peoples scholars, offered insights on initiating public conversations about historical events involving First Peoples and centering the voices of present-day First Peoples in those conversations.

We thank you for your consideration, and look forward to your response.

Respectfully yours,

Rabbi Joshua Breindel, Congregation Beth El of the Sudbury River Valley

Reverend Tom O'Brien, Pastor and Teacher, Memorial Congregational Church (United Church of Christ)

Reverend Dr. Marjorie Matty, Senior Minister, First Parish of Sudbury, Unitarian Universalist

Rabbi Lisa Eiduson, Congregation B'nai Torah
